dividing the workforce and attacking union recognition and after all,
Fujitsu Services is one of the biggest IT suppliers to the UK government.

Thank you for your letter regarding the above.

I am quite concerned to learn of the problems at Fujitsu at Manchester and I have taken up the matter with the Minister for Work to see if there is any possible Government investigation into this matter.

I will of course let you know when I have received a response.

Dear Walter,

Thank you for your communication regarding the dispute between Amicus members and Fujitsu Manchester.

I note that the dispute has now gone to ACAS and that industrial action has been suspended for the time being.

In view of the fact that I do not have a direct constituency interest and operate under the constraints of being a minister (Parliamentary Under-Secretary in the Northern Ireland Office) it is difficult for me to play a leading role in any campaign on this issue.

Nonetheless I am in touch with the Amicus Parliamentary Group and I would like to assure you that I will do all I can from within Parliament to support Amicus members at Fujitsu Manchester in their campaign to defend their working rights.

Yours sincerely

Fujitsu Services Dispute

Dear Ian,

ASLEF Salisbury Branch members wish the AMICUS members working for Fujitsu Manchester all the best in their current dispute.

The trials of working for a company that does its best to divide, demoralise and conquer its workforce are hard at the best of times. Trying to bring re-order and recognition where so much ill may exist is harder still. The importance of Unity as one amongst the workforce is never more important than as now in your current dispute.

We hope your campaign brings results that will rebuild the foundation upon which your agreements are based and a stable future.

Thank you.

Yours fraternally

FUJITSU SERVICES DISPUTE

Dear Colleague,

At the December meeting of the Motherwell branch of ASLEF, a circular from our Head Office was read out. The circular outlined the dispute between Fujitsu Manchester and its employees. We in the rail industry have our fair share of companies with a bad record in industrial relations and can sympathise with our colleagues in Amicus. We at Motherwell branch would like to wish you all the best and give our support to the Fujitsu employees, especially at this time of year.

Please find enclosed a cheque for £50 towards your strike fund.

For your attention.
