1st February 2007

Dear Ian

At its meeting yesterday, the Amicus NEC considered the current dispute being members at Fujitsu in Manchester, and also heard a report from yourself on the progress of the dispute.

The NEC agreed to send to all members our best wishes for the dispute, our support in your efforts, and our hope that it is successfully resolved to the satisfaction of all members concerned.

The NEC agreed to contribute to the dispute fund and we shall be sending you this funding in the near future.

Yours fraternally

4th February 2007-

Dear Mr Courtley

As a Manchester City Councillor I have been contacted by constituents who work for your company in Manchester and are concerned at the ongoing dispute between you and your workers represented by the trade union AMICUS.

I am concerned that this dispute which is about union recognition, failing to consult before changing terms, conditions and working practice, redundancy and redeployment and fair pay has not been resolved by negotiation and is leading to strike action.

I wish to stress that the City Council supports the right of workers to organise in trade unions and to fair and reasonable treatment at work including proper redundancy and redeployment packages.

I hope that you will negotiate with AMICUS to ensure a fair solution for workers.

Yours sincerely

Councillor Sheila Newman

Subject: Fujitsu dispute

Ian,

Please accept and extend our message of fraternal support to your colleagues in relation to your dispute.

Your colleagues who attended Crewe site today generated what was a lively discussion that highlighted the similarity in tactics used by what are widely different employers.

May we wish you strength and resolve in your fight and hope that your dispute can be resolved swiftly and satisfactorily. Good luck colleagues.

Yours fraternally,

AMICUS WEMBLEY-HENDON 640 BRANCH

Dear Comrades,

Re: Amicus Fujitsu Dispute

At its meeting of January 18th, the branch unanimously agreed a donation of £100 towards the costs of this important strike.

A lot of our members work in IT related jobs, an area which unions have so far not made a significant impact. A victory would certainly mean that unions will be seen as being capable of fighting for fair pay and good conditions of work in this fast growing area of work. This will benefit of all IT workers.

A victory would also mean a defeat for the employers who believe that British unions are weak and it is easy to break them. I am thinking of Gate Gourmet and Asda in particular.

The Government has taken no action to settle this dispute, despite being directly affected by the strike because Fujitsu supports IT infrastructure in several Government departments. We will be writing to our MP's asking them to ensure that the Government puts pressure on Fujitsu to fully recognise all agreements with unions and to cease threatening union reps.

Yours fraternally

Ben Rickman

Secretary

Subject: Message of Support

I am writing to you on behalf of PCS Members working at the DVLA Swansea Branch.

I have received numerous messages from Members working here today expressing their outrage at the treatment of Union members and reps by Fujitsu at Manchester.

Thank you for distributing the Union news letter outside DVLA this morning. I am sorry I was unable to personally meet with amicus reps but wish you well in the dispute.

Please accept this message of support to all members involved with the dispute and I do hope that you have a good outcome.

best wishes

Message of support from a Fujitsu employee in the Netherlands

Dear Sir,

I would like to lodge a protest against the treatment of union members(both Amicus and PCS)and the rest of the workforce within your company. In my opinion they are being treated unjustly and unfairly.

I will be raising this matter with my local regional Amicus council and will also be campaigning for support within my workplace for the union members involved.

Yours faithfully
